

Behold the King

His Unjust Trials: Mark 14:53-15:1 (p. 851) & John 18:28-19:16 (p. 904)

This week, we walk with Jesus through His trials. Though accused and condemned, He boldly declares His identity as the promised King. In the face of injustice, Jesus stands firm in truth, inviting us to believe in who He truly is—the sovereign and sacrificial King.

Jesus' Trial Before Caiaphas

The Purpose: To Put Him to Death (Mark 14:55, John 18:31)

The Question: Are You the Christ? (Mark 14:61)

Peter's Trial in the Courtyard

The Accusation: You're With Jesus (Mark 14:67-70)

The Denial: I Don't Know Him (Mark 14:71-72)

Jesus' Trial Before Pilate

The Question: Are You the King of the Jews? (John 18:33)

The Question: What is Truth? (John 18:38)

The Declaration: "Behold, your King" (John 19:14)

Reflection and Action: Do you recognize Jesus as the sovereign and sacrificial King?
